The second way the Old Testament reveals Jesus is through types and shadows: Hebrews 10:1 says, "The law [was only] a shadow of the good things to come instead of the true form of these realities" (ESV).

Colossians 2:16-17 says a "festival or a new moon or sabbaths [are] a shadow of things to come, but the substance is of Christ."

Of Saints and Shadows is an amazing book, though its basic premise is the same as most vamp tales. What makes the novel original, is Peter Octavian. He seems to still hold to his humanity, though he's not been one for hundreds of years. He's a gentle man, looking only to punish those who deserve it- but not
